First year medical student budget for 2018-2019:

Fall and Spring Semesters

- Tuition: $25,752 (tuition: $12,876/semester)
- Fees: $1,362
- Books and Supplies: $1,982
- Room and Board: $11,800 (average rent $932)
- Loan fee: $396
- Personal/Misc: $2,000
- Transportation: $858
- Total: $44,150

Summer Semester 2019 budget (8 weeks)

- Tuition: $12,876
- Fees: $159
- Personal/Misc: $444
- Loan fees: $147
- Room and Board: $2,622
- Transportation: $264
- Total: $16,512

Total Cost of attendance for all 3 semesters: $60,662

*Non-Resident tuition: $18,479 per semester

Cost of Degree Tuition Policy provides for a guaranteed tuition rate for all four years of the medical school curriculum. Once determined, your tuition cost per year will remain fixed until completion of your degree.

*Budgets may be increased for dependent childcare.

$1,400 computer loan is available, once school has started in August, bring in receipt and fill out a computer loan request form after first week of classes. Also, if you have to purchase AHC Health insurance, the cost of insurance will be added to your budget in the form of a loan, you will have to request the health insurance loan, and it will be added.

Candidates at the University of Minnesota Medical School Duluth who are interested in financial aid must submit:

- Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) www.fafsa.ed.gov
- FAFSA School Code: 002388

Financial Aid Awarded:

- Over 98% of our medical students received financial aid in the form of loans and scholarships.
- In 2017-18, over $355,000 in scholarships were awarded by the Medical School Duluth

Contact: Dina Flaherty
218-726-6548
dflahert@d.umn.edu